My signature below is authorization for my financial institution to provide Station Casinos with requested information pertaining to my checking accounts, in accordance to the provisions of the Federal Fair Credit Reporting Acts. This authorization applies to my business and personal accounts. Markers not paid within fourteen (14) days of the issue date are subject to deposit unless alternative payment arrangements are made with the appropriate Santa Fe Station management personnel prior to the payment due date. Fees may be assessed for returned checks or third party collections. The confidentiality of the information you have furnished is preserved except when disclosure of this information is required by applicable law.

I give Santa Fe Station permission to obtain information regarding my accounts with the bank (s) listed above and to request information from any recognized credit bureau. I will not hold these firms or Santa Fe Station responsible for any information released in the ordinary course of business. In the event that your check is returned unpaid for insufficient or uncollected funds, we may re-present your check electronically. In the ordinary course of business, your check will not be provided to you with your bank statement, but a copy can be retrieved by contacting your financial institution.

For the purposes of Nevada law, a credit instrument is identical to a personal check and may be deposited in or presented for payment to a bank or other financial institution on which the credit instrument is drawn. Willfully drawing or passing a credit instrument with the intent to defraud, including knowing that there are insufficient funds in an account upon which it may be drawn, is a crime in the State of Nevada which may result in criminal prosecution in addition to civil proceedings to collect the outstanding debt.
